Enemy Fleet*Germans Are Turned Back, Driven From London Says New Positions

BY DREW MIDDLETON

London, June 17.—(P)—United States army bombers alone scored 35 direct hits on two Italian battleships in one of the great Mediterranean convoy battles Monday, it was disclosed today.

With the battleships ablaze, a 10,000-ton cruiser and two destroyers sunk, and two cruisers and two destroyers damaged by the joint American and RAF onslaught, the Italian squadron turned and fled back toward its Taranto base.

The RAF followed up Monday night and penetrated a smoke screen to hit one of the battleships again, a Cairo communique announced.

The Italian naval force never got into contact with the Tobruk-bound convoy it had set out to intercept, a British source stated.

The convoy, and another for Malta, both got through with their important supplies, although "at considerable cost," primarily from Axis air attacks, said a London official statement which described the convoy operation as "a limited success."

U. S. Bombers Help To Halt Italian Ships

An Allied Airdrome in the Libyan Desert, June 17.—(P)—The United States army's big Liberator (Consolidated) bombers were credited today with scoring 35 direct bomb hits on two Italian battleships in operations with the RAF in the central Mediterranean and their commander said "it was like shooting fish in a barrel."

The United States fliers delivered their first blow in the Mediterranean war Monday, Maj. Alfred F. Kalberer, who led the flight, said.

Ruhr Plants Bombed Again

London, June 17.—(P)—British bombers smashed again at Nazi war plants in the Ruhr and Rhineland regions of Germany last night although bad weather which had forced a week-long lull still had not fully cleared.

Eight British bombers failed to return from the night's offensive, which included mine-sowing in enemy waters, the air ministry said.

Its communique added that a German fighter was shot down attempting to intercept the RAF bombers and that a British fighter also was lost on daylight offensive patrol over northern France yesterday.

The Berlin radio reported seven bombers had been downed during attacks, described by DNB as nuisance raids, upon several plants in western and southwestern Germany.

Discontent Grows As France Passes Fateful Anniversary

Marshal Says He Still Hopes to Realize Country's Salvation

TRIAL WILL BE LONG

Vichy, June 17.—(P)—"Discontent is growing," Chief of State Petain admitted today in a brief broadcast to the French people on the second anniversary of his suing for peace with Germany.

The 86-year-old chief said, however, that he hoped to realize his country's salvation "even after my death."

"Frenchmen," he began, "on June 17, 1940, at the tragic hour of the armistice request, I summoned you to silence your anguish so as to hearten only your faith in the destiny of your country."

"A year later, on June 7, 1941, I (Turn to Page Six)

Chinese Give Up Important Railway Base

Chungking, June 17.—(P)—Shangjiao, important station on the Chekiang-Kiangsi railway, has been abandoned to the Japanese.

But only after an all day battle in which 8,000 casualties were inflicted on the invaders, the Chinese high command announced tonight.

Shangjiao, 50 miles within Kiangsi province, fell Monday to the Japanese column which has driven westward along the railway from Chekiang province seeking a junction with a second force driving eastward from Nanchang, western terminus of the line.

With the fall of Shangjiao, the Chinese said that the gap between (Turn to Page Six)

Ship Sinkings Since Pearl Harbor Are Boosted to 274

Two ship sinkings in the Caribbean were announced today by the navy, bringing the total of ships announced sunk to 274 in the Atlantic and adjacent waters since Pearl Harbor.

It also brought to 10 the number of ships announced lost this week.

Survivors of the medium-sized Panamanian and small Honduran ships—latest victims reported—were brought to an east coast port. Nineteen survivors of the Panamanian ship spent two weeks on three open rafts before they were rescued. Seventeen men were believed lost and hope was held for the rescue of seven others who are missing.

Thirty-five survivors of the Honduran ship who drifted in rafts for six days were rescued. Twenty-four are missing, including two members of the navy gun crew.

Flood Damage Repair Fund

Harrisburg, June 17.—(P)—Governor James has authorized a $1,250,000 program to repair damage caused by recent flash floods in eastern Pennsylvania and to prevent future disasters.

The highway department, planning to spend approximately $750,000, has already tackled the big clean-up job but the governor said the $500,000 flood control program proper could not get underway for about five weeks since the law requires the work be done by contract.

In addition, the department of forests and waters was authorized to spend $25,000 for stream clearance.

More than a score of lives were lost in the late May floods. The heaviest damage was reported in Wayne, Lackawanna and Luzerne counties.

NEW WARNING SOUNDED FOR AUSTRALIANS

Prime Minister Curtin Somberly Admits News is Not Good and Nation Can Be Lost

JAP BOMBERS ACTIVE

Melbourne, Australia, June 17.—(P)—Prime Minister John Curtin told Australians somberly today that the "war news was not good, that Australia can be lost," and that the fall of this continent would lay Hawaii and the whole North American coast open to Japanese attack.

The dynamic operations now proceeding, said Curtin, are the powerful German onslaught against Russia, the thrust in Libya and the sustained and widespread submarine attacks on Allied shipping.

"Australia is irrevocably linked with the wars in Libya and Russia," he said.

Simultaneously in Wellington, New Zealand, Prime Minister Peter Fraser and United States Minister Patrick J. Hurley issued warnings against over-optimism on the part of the United Nations.

Curtin said that a complete setback for the Allies in the Middle East would gravely affect Australia.

Meanwhile, Japanese bombers tried again for the fourth successive day yesterday to score an air blow against the far northern Australian port of Darwin and again achieved nothing to repay their costs, General MacArthur's headquarters announced.

Although the Japanese sent over waves of 27 bombers on three of the four days, the Allied headquarters communique each time has described the damage as "slight" or "negligible."

On the other day, last Sunday, the bombers never reached their objective because United Nations fighters met the advance escort of fighters and shot down four out of a squadron of 18 to 25 with a loss of but one Allied plane.

In all, the Japanese have lost 13 bombers and fighters to six fighter planes lost by the United Nations.

Executive Calls on Nation To Engage in Effort to Preserve Health

ALL MUST PARTICIPATE

Washington, June 17.—(P)—President Roosevelt called on the nation today to engage in a concerted drive for "total physical and moral fitness," with particular emphasis on elimination of "red-light" districts in war industry areas.

In a letter to Paul V. McNutt, director of the Office of Defense Health and Warfare, the president declared that such districts contributed a major part of the venereal disease infection found in army camps and naval stations.

Asserting the interdepartmental committee on venereal disease "has made splendid progress in eliminating" these, the president said the campaign must be extended to industrial areas, with the full cooperation of federal, state and local governments, business and industry, the medical profession, schools, and churches.

In urging united emphasis on the moral and physical fitness drive, the president observed that "this is one effort in which every man, woman and child can play his part and share in ultimate victory."

"This job depends ultimately upon the people themselves and their moral fibre," he said.

McNutt sent copies of the letter (Turn to Page Six)

Nelson Gives His Views On Tax Proposal

Washington, June 17.—(P)—Chairman Donald Nelson of the War Production Board expressed opposition today to a flat 4 per cent excise tax for corporations, contending it might endanger the war production program.

Nelson told Chairman Doughton (D-NC) of the house ways and means committee, which already has tentatively approved the 94 per cent rate, that if a tax higher than 80 per cent should be approved, the excess above that level should be treated as a post-war credit, "preferably in the form of a government obligation with definite maturities."

A polite but emphatic "no" came from house ways and means committee members today in reply to President Roosevelt's suggestion that congress divide the pending tax bill and speed action on excess levies which would produce more than $1,000,000 a day in immediate new revenue.

ELECTION TIES ARE BROKEN BY DRAWINGS

Harrisburg, June 17.—(P)—Lester Bachman, of Middleburg, and John C. Brecht, of Smethport, won Democratic nominations for legislative seats in drawings held yesterday to break election ties.

Bachman and Ira T. Fiss, Republican incumbent from Snyder county, each received five written votes at the primary with no Democrats in the race. Fiss, who received the Republican nomination, will oppose Bachman in the November 3 general election.

Brecht tied with five others for the McKean county Democrat nomination, each of six receiving one write-in vote.

Start Saving Cooking Fats for Uncle Sam

Washington, June 17.—(P)—A salvage campaign to recover household cooking fats will be launched by the War Production Board some time in early July.

Lessing J. Rosenwald, chief of the Bureau of Industrial Conservation, announcing this today, asked that housewives save cooking fats and to sell them, when the drive starts, to neighborhood chain food stores, meat markets, and frozen food locker plants.

Fats are essential in the war effort as a source of glycerine for explosives and the WFBF, Rosenwald said, "hopes to secure over half a billion pounds a year of wasted cooking fats from the kitchens of American homes."

Collection centers would pay for the fats at a yet undetermined number of cents per pound, Rosenwald said.

Excitement is great

Unintended test air raid alarm last night caused great excitement and confusion among residents of Uniontown and Connellsville.

After surveying the results, with what he termed "disgust," Police Chief A. W. Davis of Uniontown reported today:

"We presented a perfect target for any enemy."

Here were some of the chief complaints:

Although the first warning signal reached the Connellsville airport from the army at 11:09 p. m., and the "red" signal was flashed six minutes later, indicating the enemy was five minutes away, it was not until midnight that the first siren sounded here. Locating authorities and double-checking the signals, etc., caused the delay.

He couldn't get the power company to shut off the street lights; auto drivers ignored signals to stop and douse their lights; advertisement lights remained on, and during the confusion after the sirens sounded, house lights kept blinking on and the telephone office was swamped by calls.

"And all the time the lights on the court house clock, visible for miles around, were as bright as ever," said Davis.

The all-clear signal reached the airport at 12:05 a. m., but was not sounded here until 12:15 a. m.

The confusion was not so general at Connellsville, where most of the folks were asleep.

The signals were flashed as tests in preparation for the dusk-to-dawn blackout schedule later this month over the state.

Mattie Pearl, wearing a blue print dress and chewing gum, told the jury that on the day before a breakfast table argument over a pair of paint-stained trousers, her husband had been singing "Tomorrow'll be a-buryn' day for you." She said she believed her husband was threatening her life as he sang.

She was the only defense witness.

The small girl and her father sat expressionless during the five-hour trial in which defense attorneys argued the shooting was an act of self-preservation. They received the verdict without emotion.

MEAT PACKERS AT PITTSBURGH STRIKE

Pittsburgh, June 17.—(P)—Approximately 1,600 employees of four large meat packing concerns struck today in support of demands for a wage increase of 12 1/2 cents an hour.

The firms normally supply 3,500,000 pounds of meat weekly.

The firms involved are Frie and Reineman Packing Company, Henry Lohrey Company, Oscar and Hess Company and the North Side Packing Company.

Steedman credited his bombadier, Staff Sgt. R. M. Clifton, of Harrisburg, with first spotting the carrier through a hole in the clouds under them.

The lieutenant's crew also included Sgt. W. J. Pananes, Chambersburg, Pa., and Corp. Earl Schaeffer, Reading, Pa.

"Goonie" (nickname of their bomber) contacted the enemy the afternoon of June 3," Steedman said. "We selected a transport for the target and dropped all our eggs, scoring several direct hits, and did not draw a single burst of ack-ack."

The following day Collision sighted the carrier and dropped bombs through the opening in the clouds, the lieutenant related. A direct hit was scored, he added, despite terrific anti-aircraft fire.

Soon after this bombing, enemy planes, their fuel apparently nearly exhausted, returned from the Midway attack and found their mother ship ablaze, Steedman said. Some attempted landings and plunged into the water, he continued, and others were shot down by the American ship and other craft in the U. S. armada.

NEW ORDER ON SUGAR RATIONING REQUESTS

Washington, June 17.—(P)—Consumers who were unable to obtain ration books because they had excess supplies of sugar will be permitted to obtain books if the excess has been depleted by home canning, the Office of Price Administration announced today.

Application may be made to local war price and rationing boards.

Bunker Hill Celebrates In An Atmosphere of Conflict

Boston, June 17.—(P)—An atmosphere of war hung once again over Bunker Hill today on the 167th anniversary of the first major battle that Americans fought in the cause of liberty.

Ordinarily the day is ushered in with a gala "night before" torchlight parade and a huge bonfire that reflects against a 220-foot monument atop the 75-foot hill.

But this year, under coastal dim-out regulations, the shaft stood darkened against the night. There were no torchlight parades, no bonfire.

Surprise Test At Uniontown Disappointing

After Unexpected Blackout Officials Say Town Presents Perfect Target

EXCITEMENT IS GREAT

Uniontown, June 17.—(P)—An unheralded test air raid alarm last night caused great excitement and confusion among residents of Uniontown and Connellsville.

After surveying the results, with what he termed "disgust," Police Chief A. W. Davis of Uniontown reported today:

"We presented a perfect target for any enemy."

Penn'a Fliers Have a Big Thrill at Sea

Honolulu, June 17.—(P)—Three Pennsylvania fliers helped damage a Japanese aircraft carrier during the battle of Midway island, then watched while Japanese planes plopped into the sea in desperate attempts to land on its burning decks.

The story was told by the Pennsylvanians' superior officer, Pilot Lieut. Edward Steedman of Sherman, Tex., in charge of a flying fortress bomber.

Steedman credited his bombadier, Staff Sgt. R. M. Clifton, of Harrisburg, with first spotting the carrier through a hole in the clouds under them.

The lieutenant's crew also included Sgt. W. J. Pananes, Chambersburg, Pa., and Corp. Earl Schaeffer, Reading, Pa.

NEW TRIAL IS ASKED FOR BOY MURDERER

Pittsburgh, June 17.—(P)—A new trial was asked today by Attorney Louis Little for Vincent James Rocco, 14, of Swissvale, convicted of voluntary manslaughter in the fatal shooting of his 9-year-old sister, Marie, last March.

Little contended the conviction of Allegheny county's youngest murder trial defendant was "against the law and evidence." No date was set for a hearing.

The jury had recommended "extreme leniency" for Rocco.

WOOD VESSELS TO FIGHT SUBS

Washington, June 17.—(P)—In a war of metals, wood took a new and important place today for use in construction of small patrol craft to combat the submarine menace and protect vital coastwise shipping.

Chairman Vinson (D-Ga.) of the house naval committee disclosed that a big percentage of the 1,000 small craft envisioned in the navy's $8,500,000,000 fleet expansion program would be made of wood.

While the provision for the 1,000 small vessels came as one of the navy's answers to the submarine challenge, the greater part of the vast expansion program was devoted to the philosophy of attack.

To carry out that philosophy, Vinson declared that the navy planned to concentrate on construction of plane carriers on the ground that the Midway and Coral Seas engagements had demonstrated that they were "the backbone of the fleet."

County G. O. P. Committee Meeting Is Most Harmonious

One of the largest and most enthusiastic meetings in the history of the Warren County Republican committee was held last evening following the serving of a delicious chicken dinner at the Pittsfield Inn. Of the fifty-two committee-men 42 were present in person, two were represented by proxy and but three were absent. County officials and invited guests swelled the total attendance to 77.

Addison White, prothonotary, presided as temporary chairman in his usual capable manner, and Jesse G. Smith, of this city, was unanimously re-elected county chairman. Other officers including co-chairmen, secretary and treasurer, will be appointed by the chairman later.

Harmony was the keynote of the speeches made by Judge Allison D. Wade, Chairman Smith, State Senator L. E. Chapman, Assemblyman W. W. Muir, County Solicitor Alexander Flick, and several of the committeemen.

All the speakers spoke briefly of the coming campaign, emphasizing the importance of voters being properly registered and the need of effective and thorough work between now and the general election.

Three of the committeemen, who were present, it was reported, have served in that capacity consecutively for twenty years each. They are Charles Wilson, of Bear Lake, William Tompsett, Tidoute and Ward Courson, of Deerfield township. Mr. Wilson, who stated that he has voted continuously each year for 64 years, gave one of the most inspiring informal talks of the evening.

Following the addresses a general discussion followed which brought out numerous constructive ideas which will probably be adopted by the committee during the coming months.

Among those in attendance were a number of leading Republican workers in Crawford county.

CAMPS IN PENNSYLVANIA
In the hills of Pennsylvania, "fortified by nature," nearly three hundred organized boys' and girls' camps are prepared for the opening of a season that bids fair to equal, if not exceed, those of other years, the State Department of Commerce has been informed. Adult camps, too, are expecting a good year.

A booklet listing the camps, compiled by the Department, has been in wide demand this year, especially by persons in the more populous centers who desire not only to have their boys and girls enjoy a healthful vacation for several weeks, a month or longer, but to send them into the quietness of the hills and valleys of this State and away from the turmoil of war's preparations whenever that is possible. Copies of the booklet are being mailed to all inquirers.

In some instances, it has been reported to the Department, the parents of boys and girls whom they desire to send to camp, will also locate in near-by vacation areas for as long a time as they can.

Camps in Pennsylvania vary in size and their programs of activities cover a wide range. The largest number is located in the Pocono Mountains, although the Philadelphia area has a great many and there are clusters in the vicinity of Pittsburgh and Erie. But they are also scattered throughout the entire State. All of the camps make use of the outdoors as a background for the training of boys and girls and adults and all of the organized camps have special instructors in physical training and handicrafts. Swimming, hiking, horseback riding, canoeing, sailing, ball games, tennis and other physical sports and exercises play a prominent part in the program of every camp. And, of course, good food is never forgotten with many of the camps furnishing their guests with garden vegetables grown on near-by farms or on their own farmlands.

Special arrangements have been made by camp managements in most cases to meet trains and transport their guests to the camps. In one instance, the Department has been informed, the camp management has sent counselors into cities to meet groups of boys and girls and personally escort them to camp.

TWO YEARS UNDER MAILED FIST
France began her third year of servitude under German military masters today.

Roy P. Porter, who served in 1937-1940 in the Paris bureau of the Associated Press and in 1941 in Vichy, writes of France on the second anniversary of her capitulation to Germany, as follows:

Late at night just two years ago, his trembling voice barely rising above the crackling of a Bordeaux thunderstorm, Marshal Petain told his country: "I made contact with the adversary last night, asking him as soldier to soldier to seek with me the means to stop the fight."

Thus did the commander-in-chief of all French armed forces—the same who 20 years earlier at Verdun had said "They shall not pass"—translate 42 weeks of wearying warfare into German military domination.

Then—France was defeated. Today—she is defiant.
Then—France was hungry. Today—Because Germany has taken carloads of her foodstuffs, she is hungrier, to the point where her babies are dying, her children sick and her parents ageing prematurely.

Then—France looked toward the United States for help. Today—She is still looking toward America, but this time with her hope high that American soldiers, sailors and marines will soon invade her war-devastated north to create the projected "second" front—the "European" front against Nazidom.

The greatest thing in France today is the indomitable will of 60 per cent of her people to fight off their German oppressors—and to help those nations which are fighting the same battle.

An American recently returned from German-occupied France told me the parting message his French friends gave him:

"We will welcome you on your return, in uniform and with a gun on your shoulder. Only don't forget to bring a gun for us, too. We want to help."

During two years of almost ceaseless labor, Marshal Petain has seen France rising slowly and with difficulty, licking her wounds, binding her sores. Three governments, all slanted toward collaboration with Germany, have held the reins in Vichy and Pierre Laval, most pro-Nazi of all French political figures, is again in the saddle.

This weather certainly has a tendency to put a damper on picnics and other outdoor gatherings.

What, no more of those rare June days?

WASHINGTON IN WARTIME

By JACK STINNETT
WASHINGTON—Any time you want in Washington these days—and even if you don't—you can get a confused argument about the deportation order of Harry Renton Bridges, the west coast longshoremen's union and CIO leader.
The argument is confused because it always ends up in two questions: (1) Why hasn't the Communist Party protested? (2) Why did U. S. Attorney General Francis Biddle do it, especially in view of the fact that President Roosevelt had just commuted the 4-year sentence of Earl Browder, head of the Communist party in the United States, to 14 months, thereby releasing him from prison?

THE answer to the first is that when the Communist Party chiefs, in the midst of celebrations over the release of Browder, had recovered from their consternation (a high party official was heard to shout when the news arrived at one headquarters: "My Lord, what do we do now?") they concluded that the party couldn't possibly protest publicly the Bridges deportation order.
Why? Because that would be a public admission that Biddle's major premise as applied to this specific individual was right—that Bridges is or was a member of the Communist party.
But even though they still are enjoying the release of Browder, don't think that this slap at the party is going unnoticed. If not by the party, at least by party sympathizers. There'll be a flood of letters to congressmen and

MAN ABOUT MANHATTAN

By GEORGE TUCKER
NEW YORK—It may be that Chic Johnson suffers from claustrophobia. The dictionary defines claustrophobia as a morbid dread of confinement. In any case, Chic had just added an extra 500 acres to his farm, near Carmel, N. Y. This gives the fun-loving member of the firm of Olsen and Johnson calls to a thousand acres. He calls it Wintergarden Farms. On it is that prize herd of cattle exhibited at the World Fair two years ago. To this have been added about 75 more milk producers. I stood in the presence of these lovely ladies of the Silo, inhaled a whiff of clover and alfalfa, and watched the milkers apply the little electrical gadgets that make milking time a scientific interlude. There were hundreds upon hundreds of quarts.

THEN we wandered over to the newly added acres, where—this will surprise you—Chic has a brand new, fully outfitted hotel.

This hotel has ten rooms on the second floor, each with private bath, and on the door of each room is the name of one of the shows that have made Olsen and Johnson famous characters of the theater for the last 20 years. The first door is "Sons 'O Fun"—their current opus. Across the hall is "Hollywood." Down the line is "50 Million Frenchmen." It goes like that . . . for ten doors.

There is, too, a new swimming pool in the Hollywood style. . . . The surrounding terrain has been lavishly landscaped. There is a new farm house, with fine underground cellars for the stores of canned foods—hundreds of jars—that are raised and put up on the place. In one low sector of the

Practice Blackout Purpose Told By Defense Council

The state-wide dusk-to-dawn practice blackout which has been called by the State Council of Defense for the nights of June 23, 24 and 25 has an important educational purpose, it was pointed out today in an official statement issued by the State Council of Defense. Its purpose is to teach the ten million citizens of Pennsylvania how to carry on their duties all night long with a minimum of light showing.

Warren will be blacked out on the night of June 25 with other western Pennsylvania counties. This practice blackout has been called at the request of the U. S. Army First Fighter Command, which has the responsibility for protecting us from enemy attack by air. They realize that if and when our European enemy starts to send his bombers over our state, it may be necessary for us to keep in semi-darkness every night, for night after night, perhaps for weeks at a stretch. Cities within 50 miles of the coast from Maine to Florida are already operating on this basis every night.

Now, it is one thing to shut off our lights for a half hour and keep dark and still for that brief period. But it is an entirely different matter to keep our lights off for a whole night, or for a week or a month. Under these latter circumstances we are compelled to learn how to keep up our normal life in semi-darkness: to run a home, prepare meals and care for a family without our lights showing outside; to run a store, or hotel, to print a newspaper, to process and deliver milk, to continue industry—with a minimum of light inside, and with little or no light showing outside.

That is the purpose of the dusk-to-dawn practice blackout—so you will begin to learn by actual practice how to keep essential lights burning inside but with windows screened so that the reflection will not show outside to guide the enemy.

For one half hour during the night all lighting will be extinguished. This half hour will be announced by sirens and whistles, the official air raid warning being two minutes of short blasts. The all clear is two minutes of continuous whistles.

For the balance of the night, traffic will proceed normally, and street lights will be on, but other exterior lighting must be off and interior lighting must be screened from outside view. Details of the regulations may be obtained from the County Council of Defense. There will be other all-night practice blackouts which will follow this one, the State Council of Defense said.

"Do your best now in this state-wide blackout game, and accept gracefully any criticism, so you can make a better record next time."

Hollywood Sights And Sounds

By ROBBIN COONS

HOLLYWOOD—When an actor rubs his rabbit-foot, wishes on a star, or just plain hopes, he's a dope if he doesn't ask fate for the gift of a catch-line.

Just something to remember him by. It almost always works, and nothing happier can happen to a movie new-comer than to be given some novel, catchy bit of dialogue to speak. Something the boys and girls will pick up and spread around—the way their pops and moms banded about those snappy comebacks like "On, you kid!" and "23 Skidoo!"

WHENEVER the Life of the Party repeats the line "I'm a ba-a-a-d boy" (and he usually does incessantly) he's broadcasting an ad for Abbott and Costello. If all the tots and moppets who boast that they "dood it" really got a "whippin'" for it, maybe Red Skelton's popularity with them would take a dive. Meanwhile, Red has his trademark, he is happy and successful, and even those of us who don't care who "dood it"—and will likely go nuts if another guy spouts the line—know who Red Skelton is.

Ginger Rogers doesn't need it now, but once a catch-line meant a lot to her. In her first movie, "Young Man of Manhattan," she played a giddy little flapper named Puff. Puff always said "Cigarette me, big boy" when she wanted a smoke. The flappers, east and west, thought that was cute and took it up. They also took up Ginger.

Hugh Herbert was getting along fairly well until in one picture he said "Wood Wool!" It became his tag and set young America woo-wooping happily forever after—or at least until "Hi-yo, Silver," came along, and "If I dood it" . . . Mae West hasn't issued that vague invitation of hers for years, but she's still the "Come up and see me some time" gal.

IT'S a nice thing about these catch-lines, from the players' point of view at least, that the public holds no grudges even when the public wears them out through repetition. If it did, neither Victor McLaglen nor Edmund Lowe would be forgiven to this day. They, in all innocence in "What Price Glory?" and its sequels, perpetrated "Sez you!" "Sez me!"

This was as bad for a time, though, no worse, than the inescapable "Oh, yeah?" It may be an injustice to pin that one on James Gleason, but as I recall it Jimmy gave it the reading—fresh, sharp, in the groove—that was to send it into glory and such constant repetition that soon the sensitive cringed at its banality. The sensitive, but not the makers of B-pictures. Even now, when stung for a snappy line, they'll throw in an "Oh, yeah?"

There's another pleasant thing about catch-lines, aside from the aid and comfort to new players. Once dead, they seldom return.

Ida A. Scalise and Ralph Chiricuzio, Jr., Wed at St. Joseph's

St. Joseph's church was the scene of a lovely early summer wedding at 9:30 a. m. Monday, when Father Arthur J. Leon united in marriage Ida A. Scalise, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Scalise, and Ralph Chiricuzio, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Chiricuzio, of Corry.

White flowers were used to decorate the church and wedding music was played by Kathleen Simmon, church organist. During the mass, Mrs. Mary Rock sang several selections.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white chiffon gown, made with long train, and a tulle veil which was edged with lace and draped from a Queen Victoria crown. Her only jewelry was the bridegroom's gift of a strand of pearls and white roses were grouped about a white gardenia for her bouquet. Her sister, Theresa Scalise, was maid of honor and bridesmaids were another sister, Mary Stella Scalise, and Mary Chiricuzio, sister of the bridegroom. Their frocks were of pink and blue silk, marquisette, with brief tulle veils, the maid of honor carrying blue tinted carnations and those of the bridesmaids in pink.

John Chiricuzio, of Corry, was his brother's best man and ushers were Frank Papura and Frank Chiricuzio, Corry; Joseph Scalise, Edinboro; Anthony J. Scalise, Erie. Immediately following the ceremony, dinner was served at the Marconi Club for 55 guests. declared to you that the trail would be long and hard. Today I cannot speak to you in different terms. Petain admitted "the all-revel deficiencies of the state," but said individuals likewise were to blame "if sometimes discontent is growing, if anger is rumbling."

He insisted nevertheless that "the weariness, the neglect, the reproaches have not disheartened me."

He concluded with one of his first public references to his own mortality:

"Chaque doute of your spirits, dear friends, and if you can banish bitter criticism from it, stop to think of the chief who loves you and who for your sakes still stands up under the storm."

He should like to do still more for you. Let him at least on this second anniversary of one of the cruelest dates in our history make you share the great hope which still animates him for the salvation of our country, which he asks God that he may be able to realize even after his death.

They concentrated first on the two Italian capital ships and turned their bombights onto accompanying cruisers and destroyers only after hitting one battleship 20 times and the other 15.

In addition they set one cruiser afire and damaged a destroyer. Kalberer, a former civil airline pilot from Lafayette, Ind., said every one of the American bombers got back safely from the attack.

(An RAF announcement in Cairo today said that in a second air attack Monday night an addition hit was scored on one of the two battleships which the Americans and British had left in flames.)

Chinese Give Up Important Railway Base

The two Japanese columns has been cut to 50 miles. Sanguinary fighting in the streets preceded the abandonment of the city, the communists asserted.

The Chinese communists said the Chinese defenders of Kiangsi now were attacking fiercely the flanks of the Japanese columns and had recaptured several points.

Chinese troops recaptured the Yangtze river port of Hsueh in a counterattack yesterday 24 hours after its occupation by the Japanese and drove the invaders into full retreat, the Central News Agency said.

SALES SUSPENDED TO MANY GAS STATIONS

Washington, June 17.—(P)—Gasoline sales to eight New York City dealers and to six stations in the Philadelphia area were halted today and the Office of Price Administration said additional suspension orders would be issued soon against others discovered flouting the rationing regulations.
In a survey of the New York, Philadelphia and Newark, N. J., Metropolitan areas, 2,000 OPA checkers and citizen volunteers found 161 other stations selling gasoline without requiring ration cards. The decoy motorists visited several thousand retailers and obtained gasoline at the 175 stations by saying "I haven't my rationing card with me and I want three gallons of gasoline."
The suspension orders prevent dealers from receiving any gasoline for periods of from 15 to 30 days.

Nurses' base pay would be raised $20 monthly, to $90, for those with less than three years of service, and $5 monthly, to $135, for those with more than nine years of service. As in the case of the army and the navy, the base pay is exclusive of additional pay for longevity.
For all officers entitled to allowances for food, the daily single ration is increased 10 cents, to 70 cents daily.

BRITAIN VOTES NEW WAR CREDITS FUND

London, June 17.—(P)—The house of commons promptly voted a new £1,000,000,000 ($4,000,000,000) credit for war purposes today at the request of Sir Kingsley Wood, chancellor of the exchequer, who said it brought Britain's total authorizations during "the costliest war in history" to £10,050,000,000 ($40,200,000,000).
Britain's rate of government expenditure recently has risen to $4,250,000 ($37,000,000) a week, Sir Kingsley said.
"It is two years ago," the chancellor added, "since we left behind the actual highest rate of expenditure at any one time in the last great war."

Enemy Fleet Turned Back, London Says

As fantastic the declarations of the Italian and German high commands that Axis forces sank or damaged 53 or more warships and merchantmen in the Mediterranean Sunday or Monday.
The convoy operations were officially described today as "a limited success."

Actual costs in ships, planes and men were not announced but the hazards of supplying Malta were admitted and the necessity for trying them emphasized.
"If Malta was neutralized by the enemy or in his hands," a London source said, "the Axis supply problem in North Africa would be a comparatively simple one."
The Italian fleet which left the Taranto naval base to attack the Tobruk-bound convoy was turned back by heavy attacks of RAF and United States air force bombers and never made contact with its escort vessels, the source said.
Both convoys, steaming from Gibraltar and from Alexandria, were reported attacked heavily by shore-based aircraft from Axis bases in Sardinia, Sicily, Pantelleria, Crete and Libya.

There were indications the Axis knew the convoy from Gibraltar was leaving and it was shadowed by long-range reconnaissance planes almost from the beginning of the voyage.
When it came within range of the Axis bases, high level bombers, dive-bombers and torpedo planes attacked.

London circles said the convoy was "covered to some extent by our aircraft," but said they did not know whether a British aircraft carrier was present.

The Italian fleet which sought to halt the supply and reinforcement of Tobruk's garrison from Alexandria was declared to have found that "like the Japanese fleet in the Pacific," it was no match for shore-based aircraft including the Liberator (Consolidated) bombers of the U. S. air force.

Italian communications of Monday and Tuesday, possibly containing six duplications, listed three British cruisers and three destroyers sunk and 20 other warcraft and merchantmen damaged in 48 hours of fighting.

Rome (From Italian Broadcasts), June 17.—(P)—The high command said today that the presence of a strong Italian naval formation in waters near Crete forced a 50-ship British convoy to turn back to Alexandria under Axis attack in one phase of this week's battles along the Mediterranean sea lanes.

(The British announced officially that their convoys—one bound from Alexandria to Tobruk and another from Gibraltar to Malta—had fought their way through to both ports, although "at considerable cost.")
The money is actually good American money which has fallen into Axis hands, and whose importation into the United States is prohibited.
Any of the money that is found will be seized or impounded, but officials said that persons who might acquire the money innocently would be reimbursed.

Germans Are Digging In In New Positions

The front, before Moscow, were being mopped up.
A 3,000-ton merchant ship was reported sunk by bombs in the harbor of Jokoga on Russia's Arctic coast.

The Red army, Soviet dispatches said, is still holding Balachava, the fishing town seven and a half miles south of Sevastopol made famous by Tennyson's poem "The Charge of the Light Brigade" which occurred during the Crimean war.
More than 400 Germans were killed, two tanks were captured and an enemy defense position was occupied in a Bryansk sector, the Soviet information bureau said, reporting a gain in that region southwest of Moscow for the second successive day.

A German column was declared wiped out at a Nazi-held village on the Kharlov front, where the invaders generally still held the initiative.
(Persistent Russian efforts to regain a foothold on the Kerch peninsula of the Crimea were disclosed in Berlin.)

Favors Vichy Cooperation

Washington, June 17.—(P)—Chairman Connally (D-Tex.) of the senate foreign relations committee today termed the maintenance of relations with the Vichy French government "desirable from several standpoints," including the possibility of enlisting support of the French people if a second front were established.

Connally, talking at a press conference, declined to discuss information which had been given to the committee previously in a closed session with admiral William D. Leahy, ambassador to France, who was called home after Pierre Laval became chief of the Vichy government.
Emphasizing that he was expressing his personal opinion only Connally said he thought nothing would be gained by breaking off diplomatic relations with Vichy.

The right side of the jaw tends to be longer than the left in all races, according to scientists.

Little Force Shown Today On Exchange

New York, June 17.—(P)—Small gains ruled generally through today's stock market.

Buying had no particular force but there was enough to add fractions to prices of most leaders. Brokers reported trading contracted because of renewed anxieties over the position of the British in Libya and the Russians at Sevastopol.

Holding modest advances near the fourth hour were American Telephone, Bethlehem Steel, Chrysler, Sears Roebuck, DuPont and Standard Oil (N.J.). International Minerals & Chemical preferred pushed up about a point and the common a little less, each to a new high for the year. National Distillers also made a new 1942 top.

Heaviness marked a few issues notably Liggett & Myers "B", Postal Telegraph preferred and Detroit Edison.

Bonds were irregular and commodities moderately higher.
In the curb improved action was shown by Humble Oil, Creole Petroleum, Electric Bond & Share, Brewster Aero and Pennroad while American Cyanamid, Great Atlantic & Pacific non-voting and American Light & Traction yielded a little ground.

Search Under Way for Fund For Axis Use

Washington, June 17.—(P)—The treasury today ordered a nationwide search for and seizure of an estimated $500,000 of American money which the Axis is believed to be trying to smuggle into this country for use by agents and spies.

The money consists mostly of $1,000 and $500 bills, with a few fifties and hundreds, it was said. Serial numbers have been sent to all banks and other financial institutions.

The numbers will be posted in tellers' cages throughout the nation as was done a few years ago in the search for ransom money paid to kidnapers, the Lindbergh baby and others.

Any of the money that is found will be seized or impounded, but officials said that persons who might acquire the money innocently would be reimbursed.

BROOKLYN HAS A GRUESOME MURDER

New York, June 17.—(P)—Stuffed in a sitting position in a home-made trunk, the burned and still smoldering body of a young man was discovered today in a vacant Brooklyn lot, 50 feet off a main thoroughfare. Both hands and both feet were burned off the body.

Rags and papers smelling strong of gasoline or kerosene were found in the box, and there were fresh tire tread marks nearby, indicating the body had been brought there in an automobile.
The body was discovered by a taxi-driver at 5:20 a. m. (EWT) who went into the lot to see what was burning.

CANADIAN IS NEW KIWANIS PRESIDENT

Cleveland, June 17.—(P)—Fred G. McAllister, London, (Ont.) attorney was elected president of Kiwanis International today, defeating E. E. Stahlman, Jr., Nashville, (Tenn.) newspaper executive.
Miss Charlotte E. Whitton of Ottawa, consultant for the wartime price and trade board, said "over half of the Canadian population in industrial occupations is now at work on supplies of war."

Not only dogs suffer from rabies. Cases of rabies have been found among cats, swine, cattle and horses.

LETTER RELATES LAST DAYS ON CORREGIDOR

Philadelphia, June 17.—(P)—"Things don't look very good..." Thus Major George A. Muzzey wrote from Corregidor three days before the Philippine island fortress fell and his wife, Mrs. Doris Muzzey received the letter at her home here today.
The major was listed by the war department as "missing in action." "I haven't seen a great deal of drama and real heroism here," he wrote. "If we are captured, I'll try to get word through to you."
Muzzey, 38, was assistant professor of education at Temple University when he was called into army service.

Plan Formal Opening For Court Room

The general public will be given an opportunity to inspect the remodeled court room at the local court house on Thursday and Friday evenings when a formal opening will be held. It was announced today by Judge Allison D. Wade. The "open house" will be from seven o'clock until a late hour each evening.

County officials will be present. It was stated, to answer any questions concerning the remodeled court room and to point out the many improvements, and it is expected that many of the county's residents will take the opportunity to inspect the greatly beautified room.

Last winter a section of the ceiling plaster crumbled and fell, crushing several rows of benches in the room. As a result of this accident, the county commissioners decided to completely remodel the room, not only to make it safer but to more adequately accommodate those having frequent use for the court room.

The project is now complete and the public is cordially invited to pay a visit on either Thursday or Friday evening.

The court room will be used for a session for the first time next week. The common pleas session, postponed from May, will start on Monday and is expected to occupy most of the week.

Letters to the Editor

June 16, 1942.

The Warren Times,
Warren, Penna.

Editor:
The citizens of Warren may well be proud to call you their own newspaper, your honest sincerity in the civic progress of Warren was well demonstrated in our convention just past.

The Supreme Lodge, The Western State Association and the Local Lodge of the Loyal Order of Moose, wish to take this opportunity to express their heartfelt thanks for the many wonderful helps that you and your staff made possible and your very kind consideration of the check that you sent to help defray expenses.

We want you to know that the check you sent us was turned over to the Pennsylvania Baby Village where the tiny tots of our deceased members are taken care of. The Baby Village was built and has been maintained by the members in Pennsylvania, by members whose hearts are as kind as yours.

The prayers of these children and the gratitude of the entire membership of the Loyal Order of Moose, wish to extend to you, their blessings and the best of good wishes, to your continued success and prosperity.

Sincerely yours,
J. B. EISENBERGER,
Director of Supreme Lodge.
